Department of Co-operation

Office of the Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies

Order

No. 17-15-78/ARSZ/Service/Vol. I/1383

- Read:-
1. Memo No. RES-(c)-150/Goa dated 23-1-64 registering the Society.
 2. Order No. 17-15-78/ARSZ/Service/LQD/1898 dated 15th Jan., 1997 taking the society into liquidation.
 3. Notice of the Special General Body Meeting convened by the Liquidator on 24-11-02.
 4. Proceedings of the Special General Body Meeting held on 24-11-02 whereby, willingness shown by the members for reconstruction of the said society and letter dated 26-1-03 addressed to this office showing interest for revival of the said society.

Whereas, the Betalbatim Wellwishers, Service Co-op. Society Ltd., Betalbatim-Goa, was registered vide registration certificate as indicated at Sr. No. 1.

Whereas, in the year 1997, the functioning of the society was paralysed and all the activities and operations were stopped. The society was also found not undertaking any activities for the achievement of its avowed objectives, thereby not serving the purpose of its existence. As a consequence the society was taken into liquidation vide order at Sr. No. 2 above.

Whereas, some of the members of the society have shown their inclination for reconstruction of the society and expressed their intention for revival to the Liquidator.

Whereas, the Liquidator in pursuant to the intentions expressed by the members called a Special General Body Meeting of the society on 24-11-02 under which, it was unanimously decided to rejuvenate the working and reconstruct the said society.

Whereas, the liquidator of the above society has furnished the copy of the proceedings of the meeting held on 24-11-02 showing interest by the members in the revival of the said society alongwith the letter dated 26-01-03 from some of the villagers/members of the said society for such revival. Hence, I am of the considered opinion that there is no objection for reconstruction of the said society whereby such a revival will be for the betterment of the members in particular and public in general.

In view of the above position, I pass the following order:-

ORDER

In exercise of the powers vested in me in terms of Section 19 of the Maharashtra Co-op. Societies Act, 1960 as made applicable to the State of Goa read with Rule 15(2) of the Co-op. Societies Rules, 1962 I, A. K. Kamat, Asst. Registrar of Co-op. Societies, South Zone, Margao-Goa hereby approve the reconstruction of the Betalbatim Wellwishers Service Co-op. Society Ltd., Betalbatim, Salcete-Goa. w.e.f. 8-9-03. Further it is hereby ordered that society shall adopt the same bye-laws approved by this office on 23-1-64 while registration of the society along with necessary amendments made thereof if any. The face value of the share capital will be on par with the relevant provision of bye-laws. All the assets and liabilities appearing in the Balance Sheet as on 31-3-2002 shall be carried forward for the succeeding years of reconstruction.

Given under my hand and seal on this 8th Sept., 2003 at Margao-Goa.

Order

No. 5-836-2001/ARSZ/Credit/1410

Read:- 1. This office registration No. 8-RES-(a)-96/South Goa, 2001 dated 31-1-2001.

2. This office showcause Notice No. 5-836-2001/ARSZ/Credit/925 dated 31st July '03.

Whereas, the Goa Sidha Samadhi Yoga Urban Co-op. Credit Society Ltd., Shirvoi, Quepem-Goa was registered under code symbol No. 8-RES-(a)-96/South Goa/2001 with the main objects to carry out the work of the society as per the objects specified under society's bye-law No. 5.

The society was registered way back in 2001, and has not undertaken any business since inception and thus has ceased to function. It was expected of the society to convene the Annual General Body Meeting every year within a period of 3 months next after the date fixed for making up its accounts or within the period extened by this office in terms of Section 75 of the Maharashtra Co-op. Societies Act, 1960 as made applicable to the State of Goa. However neither the First General Body Meeting nor the Annual General Body Meeting were held and the proceedings were found on records. Accordingly, it was expected from the society to prepare Annual statement of accounts including balancesheet every year and submit a copy of the same to this office within a period of 45 days of the close of every Co-operative Year for the purpose of audit. The society has failed to abide by this provision and as a result the accounts of the society have remained unaudited since inception.

Considering the above lapses in the functioning of the society, this office had issued a showcause notice No. 5-836-2001/ARSZ/Credit/925 dated 31st July, 2003, requesting the society to show cause in writing within 15 days from the date of issue of this notice, however, no say has been received from the said society hence, this office has no other alternative then to cancel the registration of the society, and hence I pass the following Order.

ORDER

By virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in me under provisions of Section 21 of the Maharashtra Co-op. Societies Act, 1960 as made applicable to the State of Goa, I, A. K. Kamat, Asst. Registrar of Co-op. Societies, South Zone, Margao-Goa, hereby cancel the registration of Goa Sidha Samadhi Yoga Urban Co-op. Credit Society Ltd., Shirvoi, Quepem with effect from the date of issue of this order. Further, the society shall from the date of such order of cancellation be deemed to be dissolved and hence cease to function.

Workman/Party I - Represented by Adv. Shri Subhas Naik.

Employer/Party II - Represented by Adv. Shri P. J. Kamat.

Panaji, dated: 31-1-2001.

AWARD

In exercise of the powers conferred under sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947) the Government of Goa by order dated 3rd July, 1998, bearing No. IRM/CON/(43)/97/9506 referred the following dispute for adjudication by this Tribunal.

"Whether the action of the management of M/s. Delta Marketing, Panaji-Goa, in terminating the services Shri Redence D'Costa, Accountant, with effect from 1-3-1997 is legal and justified ?

If so, to what relief the workman is entitled ?"

2. On receipt of the reference a case was registered under No. IT/54/98 and registered A/D notice was issued to the parties. In pursuance to the said notice the parties put in their appearance. The Workman-Party I (for short, "Workman") filed his statement of claim at Exb. 3. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the workman are that he was employed as Accountant with the Employer-Party II (for short, "employer") w.e.f. 1-8-91. That on 24-2-97 the employer issued to him a letter wherein his salary was reduced and his salary structure was also changed and when the workman declined to give in writing his acceptance to the said letter he was issued a letter dated 28-2-97 by the employer terminating his services w.e.f. 1-3-97. That at the time of termination of his services he was not given one month's notice nor he was paid retrenchment compensation nor a seniority list was prepared by the employer and also the principle of "First come, last go" was not followed. The workman therefore claimed that termination of his service is in violation of the provisions of Sec. 25F, 25G and 25H of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. That by letter dated 14-3-97 the workman made a demand on the employer for his reinstatement in service with full back wages and continuity in service and also raised a dispute before the Labour Commissioner, Goa. That the conciliation proceedings held by Asst. Labour Commissioner, ended in failure and failure report was submitted to Government. The workman contended that since termination of his service is illegal and unjustified he is entitled to reinstatement in service with full back wages and continuity in service.

3. The employer filed written statement at Exb. 5. The employer stated that the reference made by the Government is not maintainable because there was no termination of service of the workman with effect from 1-3-97; no dispute was raised before the conciliation officer in respect of termination and the workman is not a "Workman" as defined u/s 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. The employer stated that its establishment being a small establishment the work available in the Accounts Section was very less and there was no sufficient work for two persons in the Accounts Section and therefore it was decided to restructure the accounts department. The employer stated that accordingly on restructuring it was found that there was no need of a full fledged accountant in the establishment and therefore it was decided to retrench the services of the Accountant who was surplus to the requirement. The employer stated that accordingly vide notice dated 28-2-97 the workman was informed that his services are no longer required w.e.f. 1st March 1997 and the workman accepted the said notice under protest. The employer stated that subsequent to the issue of the letter dated 28-2-97 the workman wrote a letter dated 14-3-97 contending that he was not given one month's notice, retrenchment compensation and that seniority list was not displayed on the notice board. The employer stated that on receipt of the said letter as per the advice of their advocate the workman was informed vide letter dated 29-3-97 that in order not to leave any scope for controversy in the matter of retrenchment the employer would treat him as if in employment till 31-3-97 and thus the letter of termination dated 28-2-97 was revoked and the services of the workman were retrenched w.e.f. 1-4-97. The employer stated that along with the said letter dated 29-3-97 a cheque for Rs. 41982 which included the salary for the month of March 1997, notice pay, pay in lieu of encashment of leave to the credit of the workman, retrenchment compensation and gratuity was sent and the workman received the said cheque and encashed the same on 9-4-97. The employer stated that since the termination order dated 28-2-97 was revoked vide letter dated 29-3-97 there was no issue of termination from 1-3-97. The employer stated that at the time of termination vide letter dated 29-3-97, the employer had also sent an application in Form "P" under rule 76 to the appropriate Government intimating the action of retrenchment of the workman from 1-4-97. The employer contended that termination of service of the workman is legal and justified and therefore the workman is not entitled for any relief as claimed by him.

4. On the pleadings of the parties following issues were framed at Exb. 6.

1. Whether the Party I proves that the Party II terminated his services in violation of the provisions of Sec. 25-F, 25-G and 25-H of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 ?
2. Whether the Party I proves that the Party II terminated his services w.e.f. 1-3-97 which is illegal, unjustified and by way of victimisation ?
3. Whether the Party II proves that the Party I is not a workman within the meaning of Sec. 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 ?

4. Whether the Party II proves that the reference is not maintainable ?

5. Whether the party I is entitled to any relief?

6. What award ?

5. After the issues were framed the case was fixed for the evidence of the workman. Accordingly, one Shri Visitacao D'Costa examined himself on behalf of the workman as a power of Attorney holder. His examination in chief was partly recorded and subsequently since in spite of the opportunities given he did not appear his evidence was closed and also the evidence of the workman was closed.

6. My findings on the issues are as follows:

Issue No. 1 : In the negative.

Issue No. 2 : In the negative.

Issue No. 3 : In the negative.

Issue No. 4 : In the negative.

Issue No. 5 : Workman is not entitled to any relief.

Issue No. 6 : As per order below.

REASONS

7. Issue Nos. 3 & 4: In the written statement the employer had taken the defence that the reference made by the Government is not maintainable because no dispute was raised by the workman before the conciliation officer in respect of his termination and that infact there was no termination of service of the workman w.e.f. 1-3-97. The employer had also raised the defence that the workman is not "Workman" under Sec. 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. Since it is the employer who had raised the issue that the reference is not maintainable and that the workman is not a "Workman" within the meaning of Sec. 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the burden was on the employer to prove the same by adducing evidence. In the present case opportunity was given to the employer to lead evidence on the above said issues. However, no evidence was led by the employer. In the absence of any evidence it cannot be held that the reference is not maintainable or that the workman is not a "Workman" within the meaning of Sec. 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. I, therefore hold that the employer has failed to prove that the reference is not maintainable and that the workman is not a "Workman" within the meaning of Sec. 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. I, therefore answer the issue nos. 3 & 4 in the negative.

8. Issue Nos. 1 & 2: Both these issues are pertaining to the legality and justifiability of the action of the employer of terminating the services of the workman w.e.f. 1-3-97. It was the contention of the workman that the employer terminated his services w.e.f. 1-3-97 in violation of the principles of Sec. 25-F, 25-G and 25-H of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. It was also his contention that the termination of his services is by way of victimisation. In support of the contention of the workman, one Shri Visitacao D'Costa was examined as a Power of Attorney holder of the workman. After his examination in chief which was partly recorded on 1-6-99 the said witness did not appear though several opportunities were given and ultimately the evidence of the workman was closed. Since Shri Visitaco D'Costa the Power of Attorney holder of the workman did not appear after his examination in chief was partly recorded and did not subject himself for cross examination by the employer, his entire deposition is liable to be discarded. Infact in the course of his examination in chief the said witness produced only the Power of Attorney executed in his favour by the workman and except that he did not depose anything on the facts of the case or in support of the contentions of the workman. The Allahabad High Court in the case of V. K. Raj Industries v/s Labour Court reported in 1981(29) FLR 194 has held that if the party challenges the validity of an order the burden lies on him to prove the illegality of the order and if no evidence is produced the Party invoking the jurisdiction must fail. The High Court has further held that if the workman fails to appear or to file written statement or to produce evidence the dispute referred by the Government cannot be answered in favour of the workman and he will not be entitled to any reliefs. Same principles are laid down by the Bombay High Court of Panaji Bench in the case of V.K.S. Engg., Services v/s Industrial Tribunal, Goa, Daman and Diu reported in FJR, Vol. 71, page 393. The Bombay High Court has held that the obligation to lead evidence to establish an allegation is on the party making the allegation the test being that he who does not lead evidence must fail. The same principles are also laid down by the Delhi High Court in the case of UCO Bank v/s Presiding Officer reported in 2001 CLR 105.

9. In the present case the dispute was raised by the workman that his services were illegally terminated and the Government made the reference at his instance. Therefore, applying the law laid down by the Bombay High Court, the Allahabad High Court and the Delhi High Court in the above referred cases, the burden was on the workman to prove that the action of the employer in terminating his services from 1-3-97 was illegal, unjustified and was by way of victimisation. In spite of the opportunities given no evidence came to be led on behalf of the workman and thus the workman failed to discharge the burden cast on him. There is no material before me to hold that the action of the employer in terminating the services of the workman is not legal and justified. In the absence of any evidence the reference cannot be answered in favour of the workman. In the circumstances, I hold that the workman has failed to prove that the employer terminated his services in violation of the provisions of Sec. 25-F, 25-G and 25-H of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and also that the said termination is illegal, unjustified and by way of victimisation. I, therefore answer the issue nos. 1 and 2 in the negative.

10. Issue No. 5: This issue pertains to the relief to which the workman is entitled to. Since it has been held by me that the workman has failed to prove that termination of his service by the employer w.e.f. 1-3-97 is illegal and unjustified, the question of granting any relief to the workman does not arise. In the circumstances, I hold that the workman is not entitled to any relief and answer the issue No. 5 accordingly.

In the circumstances, I pass the following order.

ORDER

It is hereby held that the action of the management of M/s. Delta Marketing, Panaji-Goa, in terminating the services of Shri Redence D'Costa, Accountant, with effect from 1-3-1997 is legal and justified. It is hereby further held that the workman Shri Redence D'Costa is not entitled to any relief.

No order as to costs. Inform the Government accordingly.

(Ajit J. Agni),
Presiding Officer,
Industrial Tribunal.
